

MEMBER AT LARGE

The Member at Large on the board of directors has general responsibilities without a specific portfolio or title. Their role can vary depending on the organization's needs.

Position title: Member at Large of the Board of Directors

Key Responsibilities

- 1. Represent Stakeholders Interests
 - Act as a voice for the broader membership or stakeholders.
- 2. Participate in Decision-Making
 - Attend meetings, vote on issues, and contribute to strategic discussions.
- 3. Support Board Initiatives
 - Assist with projects, events, or specific tasks as needed by the board.
- 4. Act as a Liaison
 - Serve as a bridge between members, stakeholders and the board, ensuring open communication.
- 5. Provide Oversight
 - Help monitor the organization's performance and ensure alignment with its mission.
- 6. Communication
 - Communicate with Board members, officers, and other stakeholders as needed.
 - Respond to inquiries and requests for information.
 - Communicate board decisions and actions to relevant stakeholders as needed.
- 7. Committee Participation
 - Participate in and/or Lead one or more NAHAC Committees.

Qualifications

- Strong communication skills
- Broad perspective
- Leadership and teamwork capabilities
- Critical thinking application
- Integrity and Confidentiality

Time Commitment: The Member at Large is expected to dedicate time to attend all board meetings, participate in committee work, and fulfill other responsibilities as needed, which may vary based on the organization's activities.

By effectively fulfilling these responsibilities, the Member at Large of the Board of Directors plays a vital role in supporting the Board and ensuring the organization's success.